Background

JPCA is a popular professional Accountants based in Rotherhite, London. They provide the full range of accountancy, bookkeeping and payroll services to their clients.

The Challenges

JPCA were fed up with the complexity of their internal systems. Being accountants they had ended up with too many different installations of different accounts and payroll systems; they were finding it hard to keep track.

The Solution

JPCA were looking to simplify and upgrade the systems. A Serviced Cloud solution encompassed all the different database and accounts software used by the company, and allowed them to access it from anywhere.
